Hospitality Training course

Visitor experiences begin from the moment you set out on your journey to the moment of return. Each part of the journey colours your experience.

By popular demand, Stenden SA, in collaboration with Sunshine Coast Tourism Board will once again offer an intense 4 day hospitality and service excellence training course to be held at Stenden's campus in Port Alfred. During this practical course, top lecturers in their fields of expertise are available to guide participants through the various stages of hospitality.

If you are interested in attending this course, or would like to send staff on the course, please click on the link below and complete the short survey.

New Experience

Grahamstown is situated just 60km from Port Alfred, heart of the Sunshine Coast. The spectacular rugged scenery of the area is peppered with exquisite examples of Eastern Cape Fynbos and abundant game reserves and lodges. Lukhanyo Game Reserve (pictured) is a fine example of the tranquil and breath taking scenery of the region. The ultimate retreat—this 1,250 ha reserve sleeps up to 12 people, and is booked exclusively for a group, no matter if 2 or 12 people stay. Combine this with guided walks amongst the wildlife, threading through awe inspiring bushveld, and experience wild Cape Buffalo being hand-fed by reserve manager, John Parker. More...
